On the streets, the sleek, sinewy Sport 111 hugs every corner and obeys every command. Take it to the track, and it simply tears up the opposition — in the same tradition that took Lotus to 79 Grand Prix victories. The new Lotus Sport 111 is delivered race-ready; and engineered for winning performance. Its race-tuned engine and suspension have been specially honed for optimum response and driver feedback. Its 16 spoke Super Turismo wheels, competition quality Yokohama tyres and three element rear diffuser create the perfect balance of ride and handling. At just $99,990*, the brilliant new Sport 111 is hard to beat.

*Plus dealer delivery and on-road costs. Driving lights, metallic and pearlescent paint optional. Prices and details correct at time of printing excluding E&O s.
